“ To my loving grandmother. People say time heals all wounds, and while that may be true for some aspects of life, I am going to miss seeing your smile, I am going to miss your hugs, but most of all I am going to miss your warm and welcoming presence. I can tell you today and tomorrow, I will always cherish and love you.

“ *Mother. You will be missed. My heart is hurting. You have always been here for me in ways that no one will ever know. I will miss you. Thank You for being a Mom to me and a grand mom and great grandmother to my daughters and grandsons. You were one classy lady in whom I learned a lot from. I never saw you angry and if something was not right you just took care of it. You loved the best things in life and most of all you Loved Jesus. You will never be forgotten. I Love You Always Momma

“ To the family of Faye Brewington, I worked with Faye for the better part of 20 years, she was a dear friend and a member of my family. She was a true professional and voice for the community in so many ways. She was the conscious for those we served and positively touched all that came in contact with her. I will miss her as you do but know hers was a life well lived and an example of service to all.
