I was not aware of her passing, and it saddens me to hear about it. Her picture looks like her mother.

“ This is her youngest son Nugget ,I didn't know this was even a thing for my mother ,but i can say that my mother was one of the GREATEST people you could ever meet because she had a Forgiving non judge mental open and caring and eternally loving heart and spirit my mother had left a great long-standing legacy of courage, strength, perseverance, understanding, kindness, openness to her children who love her more than any word vowel or consent can explain.

There is no day that i don't think about the day you left us even the days leading up because you let me know in your own way you were going home for good and that what you taught us and what you left us with was enough to not take our self out but to adhere by what you taught and how to move forward with a smile on your face and god in your heart because the strength that you had left instead of staying here you gave it to the people you loved and i thank you for that

There will be a day that i officially draw my last breath and momma all i pray is that the work i did on this earth was enough to earn the right to close my eyes for my final moment and see you directing the heavenly choir and i look back on this earth on more time and i grab your hand and FINALLY HAVE MY BEST FRIEND/CONFIDENT/SECURITY BLANKET/HEARTBEAT back for eternity

But until that day happens which i know me not you want to happen sooner than it should i will spread your knowledge, your comforting love and wisdom so maybe one day people will say this about me but

Until then CHERYL LYNN PATRICK HAMMOND BOOMER aka Myyyyyyyyyy Mommamma i love you from the bottom of my soul and I'm so proud of you for grabbing gods hand and knowing you lived learned and taught enough to leave and not worry....though i know you probably would lol

I love you momma and i miss you more every single second of every single day

I'll see you I'm my dreams my Wonder Woman and me dad and all the kids are doing the best we can without you but we will get stronger i promise i love you momma please enjoy heaven and know one day we all will be reunited i love you momma

“ To the family: No one who has ever met Cheryl can forget her. She never met a stranger. She was truly a people person. Being older, it felt like I had a little sister. She will be missed. God has His own time and His own way. He knows what we don't understand. Trust Him because He cares for you and will help you through this difficult time. I'm praying for your strength, your faith, and most of all your peace.
