“ We met 43 years ago when I was an ECU student working part-time in the children's room at Sheppard Library. Over the years Emma has been my friend, mother, confidante, sister, family. It's going to take me a while to get used to her not being in this world, just a phone call away. I'll understand it better by and by, 'Til I see you again.

“ This is a High School together, with Emma, being a head a head of me but still, we shared a lot of good times as well as good talks after the two of us had long graduated from school. Although I have not been in her presence for some time but, I still would inquire about her with others I came in contact. Not only will she be greatly missed by me but to others who knew her as well. Emma's life has ended here on this side but, on the other side her life will just began. Sleep on Emma, to take your rest that is so much deserved. A lower classmate, David Clemons - Triangle, VA.

“ The Lord has taken this wingless angel by the hand and taken her to an everlasting resting place. Sister Emma took the Master's hand with a big wide smile and said I been waiting for you Father. To the Glast, White and entire family of Sister Emma Glast Lucas our hearts are hurting with you .

As Sister Emma smile down on you let not your heart be troubled for her journey is complete. Her life was good and she shared her joy with everyone she met. We are all blessed to have known Sister Emma Gast Lucas.

“ I read with deep sorrow about the passing of Emma. She was a valued member of the Sheppard Memorial Library staff, carrying the benefits of the library to Pitt County residents on the Pitt County Bookmobile for many years. As Director of Sheppard Memorial Library for nearly 30 years, I had the good fortune to work with her for most of these years. She was universally loved and respected by her fellow workers and patrons. Her positive personality and genuine caring nature made her a treasure for all who knew her. I hope the fond recollections of Emma will provide solace for her family at this time of sorrow.

Emma was my "sister of the heart." Our fathers were best friends and they provided guidance and directions to us as though we were all "family." Loved her dearly.

“ If one is lucky as he goes through life, he will love and be loved by a variety of adopted families. I have been so blessed. Emma was a star in my very first work family at the library. Her personality, sense of humor and caring smile always made every work day joyful. She made it easy to be her friend. I never heard an unkind or negative word from her about anyone or anything. And though it has been fifty years since I first met her, I have clear and treasured memories. She and Matt and me having lunch at Parker’s while checking out my now partner of 43 years. A 1979 visit to cheer me up while in Pitt Memorial Hospital. Her visit to the 1982 World’s Fair along with Brenda and another friend. Her stay in touch phone calls over these many years from Tennessee to Florida and finally to Mexico. Emma has and always will be family to me. Rest in Peace dear lady. Joe Stines
