“ On behalf of the GI-Eppes High School Board of Directors, officers, members, supporters and friends, we offer our deepest condolences to the Johnson family at the call home of our schoolmate and classmate.

We remember Peggy for her support of this Association in physical presence during the Reunion Weekends and her monetary giving. Death is a major portion of life. No one, not even His Only Begotten Son did He send to earth to stay forever. Peggy has paid her dues, it is up to us to be prepared to do the same.

As member of the Class of 1967, we remember Peggy for always standing up for what was right and in some cases for those who could not stand for themselves. Sleep on classmate and take your rest, we loved and God loved you best.

Humbly,

*James Harper, Jr
National President '67*
