

Mr. Ra'Shaan Cardell Rodgers

March 12, 1972 - October 17, 2021

With many having mixed emotions and understandably broken hearts, the W. E. Flanagan Memorial Family has been given the solemn duty to serve notice that Mr. Ra'Shaan Cardell Rodgers closed the curtains of this life on Sunday, October 17, 2021 in Greenville, NC.

A Service to Celebrate His Life and Legacy will be held in the sanctuary of the St. Peters Missionary Baptist Church, beginning at 1pm, Saturday, October 30, 2021. Mr. Rodgers will lie in state one hour prior to the service for a public viewing.

Mr. Rodgers along with his loving family will be escorted to the Homestead Memorial Gardens for Committal Rites.

RASHAWN CARDELL RODGERS was born on March 22, 1973 in Jacksonville, Florida to the late Donald White and Barbara Rodgers. He passed his wings on Monday, October 27, 2021.
 From three months old, Rashawn was raised by his loving grandmother (whom he called "Ma" as grandmama). He grew up on the South Side of Greenville, North Carolina in Kinner Park Projects.

He was loving and loyal to his family and friends!

Rashawn leaves to cherish his memory with his...

Grandmother:
"Donna" Libby Rodgers
(of Greenville, North Carolina)

Brothers and Sisters:
Tim White (of Virginia),
William White (of Illinois), and Alex (Gabby) White (of Illinois).

Best friend:
Ruby Hulse (Maryland).
