My Son, I think of you and you are with me everyday. I wished I could see you and hear you say mama I got this or chill out mama. I know you are not dead you have just continued a more peaceful life in the Heavens above. That peace is what keeps me sane every day. I know all your deep dark thoughts are gone all the pain and anger is gone i know you wear a constant smile and i will do all I can to carry a smile for you also I know it is what you have always wanted for me. I know you are with me and your bother helping us each day. I love you my son you as always will forever be in our hearts.
