“ Moma, no words can explain the void in my heart since your passing. My memories of the ladies you raised Tracy and I to become. You taught us to trust in God, pay your tithes and you and Tracy stick together. I love you, I miss you and it doesn't seem real of your passing away. I love you and everything you've taught me will be cherished and never be forgotten. Each day that passes you're always with me, LOVE YOU , Valerie Blount ❤️❤️❤️.

“ To my sister's Tracey n Valerie I remember the very time I met ma Sahara in church and she invited me over to her home I told I will come over one day she said bring the children, so i went and every week I would visit and she would tell my two boys I don't have boys but the girls you can go back there with all them girls and me and ma Sahara would talk about God and had the best time fellowshipping together. When I came home I really was trying to see her my mind n heart wanted to see her. But God knew best . But I did get talk to her before and her same talk was about God it never changed and telling me our heart got be right with God and be ready when HE comes back. I will forever cherish her, and Love her she was my friend in deed!! know GOD doesn't make no mistakes and She was truly a Soldier in the Army of the Lord! And she spoke the truth weather you like it or not. So Tracey n Valerie you will always be our sister Virginia n Michelle and we will continue to pray 🙏 for 🙏 and lift you up before the Lord! So sorry we can't make it but we will honor that time of need on that day. And 🙌 praying and prasing God for An Angel 😇 Rejoicing for her life!

“ My heart is broken, I have so much love for my sister in Christ Evangelist Sarah. I can see that sweet smile, I can hear God saying, well done my good an faithful servant well done. Evangelist Sara was the epitome of a servant, a woman after God's own heart. The very first memory I have was when I meet this angel of light was during the death of a family member. I went Evangelist home to give support. From the moment we meet, it was if we had known each other for years. The love that radiated from Evangelist would saturate every inch of you. We not only became sisters in Christ, we became a permanent part of each other lives. I can here my sister saying, don't cry for me, I am free, I will see you again in the resurrection. I say to my babies Tracy and Valerie, I know it is hard, lean on God, you know what Momma would say. I love you both and will always be here for you❤️

“ Evangelist Sarah Barber Blount was a spiritual and faithful servant. God has gained an angel. She raised a wonderful and spiritual family, who loved her deeply. I had the pleasure to call her "momma Sarah". She prayed so many times for me and I know God heard each and every one. The last time I saw her was on Mother's Day, what a blessing for me. To the family I love you all and you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love Teresa Hoffman
